Community Center Clean-up Guide

The Links at Gettysburg Master Association has the right to withhold part of the security deposit for non-compliance with the clean-up guidelines.

Kitchen: Wipe down refrigerator inside and outside and countertops. Wash any utensils that were used during event and clean the sink. Sweep kitchen floor and mop, if needed.

Trash The user/renter is responsible for removing and disposal of ALL trash and recyclables from the building. Trash bags may be placed outside next to the downstairs pool gate, a maximum of 5 30gallon bags. Recycle bags can also be placed outside next to the downstairs pool gate ONLY on appropriate pick-up days.

Main Room: Remove all decorations and material used for hanging them. Return LED candles to the cabinet. Wipe down countertop and all tables... Vacuum entire area, including front foyer, no debris is to be left on the carpeting.

Note: Cleaning supplies (e.g.; brooms, mops, and vacuum) are located in the kitchen and/or storage room.

Fireplace Room: Turn off fireplace, if used, and return furniture to original position.

Tablecloths: If the linen tablecloths were used, take them home for laundering. All linens must be returned to the bins in the Community Center storage room within seven (5) days of the event unless another event is scheduled within that timeframe. In that case, the freshly laundered table linens must be returned the day before the next scheduled event.

Check all rooms on the main level, especially the bathrooms, to ensure that all trash has been removed, toilets have been flushed, sinks are free of debris, and lights have been turned off.

Turn off all lights except security lights.

Lock any doors or windows that were opened.
